

Hi, Chantell;

We and the wine made it through the long trip home, from Cape Town to Denver, Colorado. It's taken awhile to catch up on sleep, but the fantastic memories of both safari and Cape Town experiences make it all worthwhile. We're still marveling at the beauty of wine country and coast from our helicopter ride, plus all the sights and sounds (especially our African Dance group) along the way. Thank you again for contributing to our very special time spent in South Africa. You were a wonderful guide, and much appreciated.

Fondly,
